

Meet one of your teachers

Dr. Jan Osička is an associate professor at the Department of International Relations and European Studies, Faculty of Social Studies focusing on research related to energy policy and energy security. He teaches in the English study programme Energy Policy Studies.

WHAT YOUR SEMESTER CAN LOOK LIKE

- Energy and Society: An Introduction
- Electricity Industry: Renewable Energy
- Energy and Environment
- Energy Policy of the European Union
- Russia – Central Europe energy relations

Reasons for a Master's in Energy Policy Studies

- Both local and foreign experts provide expertise knowledge on a wide variety of energy topics
- Advisors committed to your studies, helping decide your thesis topic
- Connections to internships to expand your study opportunities
- A faculty and university committed to your success - academic and personal

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The documents we collect are:

- Motivation letter/statement of purpose (in English)
- CV/Resume
- Essay
- Diploma or proof of current bachelor's studies
- Transcripts of Grades from bachelor's degree
- Proof of English (if you do not have a certificate, submit an honest statement)
- ID or passport copy

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

30 April

ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

Mgr. Klára Němečková is the admissions advisor and is available to answer any questions you have about the application process. Please contact her at admission@fss.muni.cz.

Contact your student ambassador

Juri graduated from his bachelor's from Leiden University in the Netherlands and is able to answer any questions about the master's programme, life in Brno, or completing the application process.

Feel free to contact any of our student ambassadors regarding life in Brno - Darina is the best student to answer questions about the programme International Relations and European Politics.

