

Meet one of your teachers

Dr. Jana Urbanovská is an assistant professor at the Faculty of Social Studies, at the Department of International Relations and European Studies focusing on research related to German Foreign Policy.

WHAT YOUR SEMESTER CAN LOOK LIKE

- Mediation training for an international context
- Negotiating in a globalized arena
- EU Political System
- Contemporary World Politics
- Radicalism in Europe

Reasons for a Master's in International Relations and European Politics at FSS

- Over 10 visits a year from ambassadors sharing their experience and knowledge
- Advisors committed to your studies, helping decide your thesis topic
- Connections to internships to expand your study opportunities
- A faculty and university committed to your success - academic and personal

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The documents we collect are:

- Cover letter (in English)
- CV/Resume
- Essay
- Diploma or proof of current bachelor's studies
- Transcripts of Grades from bachelor's degree
- Proof of English (if you do not have a certificate, submit an honest statement)
- ID or passport copy

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

30 April

ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

Mgr. Klára Němečková is the admissions advisor and is available to answer any questions you have about the application process. Please contact her at admission@fss.muni.cz.

Contact your student ambassador

Having lived in Brno for 4 years, Darina is here to answer any questions about the master's programme, life in Brno, or completing the application process.

Feel free to contact any of our student ambassadors regarding life in Brno - Darina is the best student to answer questions about the programme International Relations and European Politics.

