

Meet one of your teachers

Prof. Bernadette Nadya Jaworsky is a full professor at the Department of Sociology, Faculty of Social Studies focusing on research related to migration and immigration. She teaches in the English study programmes Global Challenges: Society, Politics, Environment, Sociology and Cultural Sociology.

WHAT YOUR SEMESTER CAN LOOK LIKE

- Future Challenges: Food, Work, Shelter
- Climate Change: Environment, Politics, and Society
- Changing urban and rural environments - global challenges, local experiences and contested futures
- Global Radicalization and Extremism

Reasons for a Bachelor's in

Global Challenges: Society, Politics, Environment

- Look at global problems with local solutions
- Simultaneously study and understand the theoretical background of 3 different perspectives: Political Science, Sociology, and Environmental studies
- Advisors committed to your studies, helping decide your thesis topic
- Prepare yourself for work after graduation, or continued studies in all areas of studies.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The documents we collect are:

- Secondary school certificate or proof of current studies
- Proof of a minimum B2 level
- ID or passport copy

Full details here.

It is required to pass the GAP exam, more details here.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

31 October - spring semester
15 May - autumn semester

ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

Ing. Michaela Nespěchalová is the admissions advisor and is available to answer any questions you have about the application process. Please contact her at admission@fss.muni.cz.

Contact your student ambassador

Kateryna Omelchenko is currently in her fourth semester in Brno, and is happy to answer any questions about studying a bachelor's at the Masaryk University, life in Brno, or completing the application process.

Check the video about the program following this link.

